OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING APRIL 17, 1863

Union Leagues

The work of organizing Union Leagues in San Francisco judging from the reports, is progressing very satisfactorily The Union men there manifest the right spirit, and are acting with promptness and energy The example should be followed all over the State There should be no delay in the work the price of liberty is vigilance and this can only be secured by a union of all loyal men By the formation of Union Clubs the loyal men of California will be able to act together as a band of brothers —Sacramento Union

In the Eastern towns and cities also as we observe in our exchanges, similar organizations are beginning to be made They are deemed necessary for the purpose of counteracting and checking the stealthy schemes of disloyal traitors, who are very adroitly endeavoring to make up a party of those who are dissatisfied with the Administration Men of every shade of political feeling are hunted up and entrapped by the opposition,—peace men, pro slavery men, men opposed in any respect to the African race, men who favor the war but oppose the Administration, and men who are opposed to everything which is not calculated to inure to their own or their party's benefit. every shade of opinion in fact, from sound democratic loyalty to unmistakable sympathy with secession, or a desire for peace on any terms, is being gradually drawn within the lines of the opposition The same thing will be attempted in this State, indeed, the evidences of such a movement are already apparent, and we regret that we must confess that it is assisted in no slight degree by the action of the Administration and some of those who are striving to use its influence for personal rather than for patriotic purposes Now, to check and to overcome any such movement or such results, we believe it to be the duty of all who desire the preservation of the Union, and the prosecution of the war for that object, to put themselves into such a position as will enable them triumphantly to resist all the plots and conspiracies of traitors and desperate politicians, who love their party better than their country We need the union of loyal men for the sake of the Union Thus we shall be enabled to exercise a wholesome patriotic influence, to stay the risings of sympathy with rebellion, and to crush out the hellish spirit which craves and strives for the destruction of the Government. It is time, it is high time that the Union sentiment of this and every State, of our city and every city and village, should be manifested, and we therefore trust that immediate steps will be taken for the formation of Union clubs or leagues, on the rolls of which shall be found the name of every man who loves "Liberty and Union—now and forever—one and inseparable." Let our young men thus pledge their fidelity, and our old men renew their allegiance to the old flag, and work unitedly and with energy against every form of treason, which may seek its humiliation or to rob it of a single shining star or one stripe of honor.

Thus doing, we shall be ready for any emergency, and shall feel our personal responsibility to stand by the Government in its integrity and its majesty, as its friends and its willing, earnest defenders

DR BELLOWS ONCE MORE —The following is an extract from a letter of this gentleman, acknowledging at length the receipt of Storey county, N T, contribution to the Sanitary Fund It is dated New York, March 4th He says.

I think this detailed account will satisfy you that we have neither been ungrateful nor silent. If you doubt whether your silver arrows have reached our heart, shoot another in the same direction, and follow it, and you will find both quivering in the mark you aimed at.

The munificence of the gifts we have received from the Pacific coast has enabled us to spread comfort over the whole army, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, from New York to Newbern, from Port Royal to the Rappahannock, from the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers to the Pamunkey and the Neuse Should the mines of the infant Territories of the Pacific cease to yield us resources we should soon be obliged to close our labors—which we hope to continue while there is a soldier in the field or a sick patient in the camp or hospital

Yours for the Union and the nation—the country, the whole country, and nothing but the country

THE TIME FIXED —The London Times, in the article in which it laughs at Mason the rebel emissary, speaks as follows of recognition

When the Federals find themselves obliged to leave the Confederates in quiet possession of their States, it will be time to discuss the question of recognition, but not till then

It would have saved a good deal of hard feeling and some trouble to have said this in the first place

In a prominent hotel in San Francisco the following notice is posted up "Secessionists must not discuss treason on these premises"

Massachusetts has recently invested $700 000 in United States securities She does not despair of the Republic

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 10th!

NEW YORK April 9th —The Columbia from New Orleans April 1st has arrived

The gunboat Diana was captured by the rebels at Pattersonville A number of officers and privates were killed Two companies of soldiers on board were captured

There is no confirmation of the report that the rebels were evacuating Port Hudson

MURFREESBORO April 8th —Col Miller, commanding an expedition into Pike with the object of cooperating with the expedition under Stanly against Snow Hill has just returned to camp After scouring the country between here and Lebanon Col Miller visited Snow Hill and after a brief engagement our troops drove the rebels away taking 8 prisoners 400 horses and 5 000 bushels of wheat We also brought away 150 negroes

CAIRO, April 9th —A telegram from Charleston March 28th says that the enemy landed on Coles Island last night with 13 000 men It is supposed the object is a reconnoitre to determine the best plan for operations by sea and land against Charleston

NEW YORK April 9th —The following was received by the Columbia The steamer Honduras from the Rio Grande with 200 Texan refugees reports that on the 7th of March a rebel force of 150 marched into Mexico and captured Col Davis of Texas and Capt Montgomery of same regiment — The Mexican authorities demanded the release Col Davis was given up but Montgomery was not released Private information says that he was hung by the rebels, which is undoubtedly correct They were both taken from the house of the Mexican commander Three other officers narrowly escaped, and with half a dozen Mexicans drove the rebels to the river wounding three or four of them The rebel authorities are in great alarm lest this violation of neutrality should involve them in trouble with the Mexicans

A federal schooner with a cargo valued at a quarter of a million was captured by the rebels

The Governor of Texas in a letter to the Legislature declining re election, says he will take no more active part in the war The State of Texas furnished 84 regiments of troops for the rebel army and the conscription adopted by the Legislature will add 27 000 more Under this law there is no exemption

Havana advices contain no Mexican news The Vanderbilt is at Havana

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC April 9 —The rebels are actively engaged on their earth works around Fredericksburg An additional display of camps and bustling activity on the fortifications looks so much like their former weak inventions that the belief is that an evacuation is intended

NEW YORK April 9 —The Times special dispatch says it is understood the Department's dispatches just sent by Secretary Seward to Minister Adams in London take decided grounds against fitting out in English ports piratical vessels to prey upon our commerce The English Government is informed that its conduct in not endeavoring to prevent their fitting out is regarded as unfriendly to this Government

WASHINGTON April 9 —No intelligence of affairs at Charleston has been received to-day

It was expected at the Navy Department that a dispatch would be received this evening Entire confidence is expressed that the attack on Charleston will be completely successful Prominent Government officers openly announce their belief that Charleston has been taken

NEW YORK, April 10 —The Tribune's dispatches contain the following The rebels on the Rappahannock are in receipt of unpleasant news They gather in knots talk it over and are extremely quiet and subdued being apparently in very bad spirits Their pickets take unusual pains to prevent the exchange of newspapers or communicating intelligence through any channel It has been ascertained, however by communication with stray rebels, that an advantage has been gained by our forces at Charleston and that a Fort has been taken but which one is not stated The belief here is that Charleston has by this time fallen

NEW YORK April 10 —The Herald makes the following assertion We have now received from various sources positive information of the actual commencement on Charleston The bombardment of Fort Sumter by our ironclads began on Monday Capt Moses, of the Fair Haven brings intelligence from Capt Steadman that Com Dupont had on the 3d of April proceeded to Charleston with eleven ironclads Off Stono Inlet, Capt Moses saw our army, the transport fleet and ironclads were anchored inside

Sterling 162, gold closed at 49½

BALTIMORE, April 9 —Col Stuart, of the 2d Indiana regiment just released by rebels, makes the following statement On Tuesday last he saw from his prison window in Richmond a great bread riot—the mob being composed of about 3,000 women armed with clubs and stones They broke open the Government and private stores and took bread and clothing and whatever else they wanted The militia was ordered out to check the riot but failed to do so Jeff Davis and other officials made speeches to the infuriated women and told them they should have whatever they wanted if they would be calm Order was finally restored

Other released Union officers confirm this story

Passengers from Beaufort say that on April 5th the rebel pickets on the Trent road had reached a point nine miles from Newbern

Affairs at Little Washington look threatening Tuesday evening the rebel Gen Hill was pushing Foster's line badly, and on Monday afternoon there was a rumor that Foster had surrendered It was believed that reinforcements from Suffolk had reached him His division was strongly entrenched in rifle pits and ditches

ST LOUIS, April 9 —The Democrat's correspondence from Young's Point, dated April 3d says several transports with troops, and Ellett's marine brigade and one ironclad started up stream this morning

There is no prospect of active operations before Vicksburg for some time

The following is from a Richmond paper Chattanooga, April 6 —The enemy advanced to Woodbury and McMinnville, but being outflanked, retired Fifteen thousand Federals are advancing on Columbia

CLARKSVILLE April 9 —An expedition under Col Brown surprised Woodward and recaptured our stores and took several prisoners

FORTRESS MONROE, April 10 —The Richmond Examiner contains the following The enemy is withdrawing his troops from the Peninsula Yesterday the tents were struck Large transports have gone up the river loaded with troops

The Richmond Whig referring to the situation at Charleston says All thoughts are centered on that place Official intelligence was made public early yesterday morning that the enemy's ironclad fleet had attempted to cross the bar and failed Later in the day it was announced that the gunboats and transports had succeeded in crossing the bar and were at anchor Our ironclads lay between the forts quietly awaiting the attack Further intelligence is looked for eagerly

The same paper contains the following

CHARLESTON April 7th —The attack on Charleston commenced to day Four ironclads were engaged The firing from the fleet upon Forts Sumter and Moultrie was very heavy An ironclad was disabled and ran ashore but subsequently got out of range At 2 o'clock communication with the Ironsides opened fire at a distance of 100 yards At 3½ o'clock the firing on both sides became incessant and violent up until 5 o'clock when it gradually diminished The fire of the fleet was concentrated on Sumter The Ironsides and Keokuk withdrew apparently disabled Intense excitement prevails in the city Our men did not have much chance to take part in the fight Our casualties are one boy killed and five men badly wounded in Sumter Reports from other batteries have not come to hand

CHARLESTON April 8th —Seven turreted ironclads and the Ironsides are inside the bar— the Keokuk is sunk on the beach at Morris Island No disposition is made part of the Federals to renew the conflict

SAN FRANCISCO April 11th —A private telegram states that the passengers for New York on the Nicaragua route left New York April 11th having crossed without accident and that the Moses Taylor is not due here until the 17th

The trial of James L Hoff is fixed for the 17th He plead not guilty

Greenbacks 68 and 70

Gov Stanford has received the following dispatch

WASHINGTON April 7th—3 P M —There is no threat or apprehension of foreign aggression Correspondence of maritime powers is as friendly as heretofore W H SEWARD

MONARCHICAL PRINCIPLES AT THE SOUTH —One of the most interesting points in Mr Russell's recently published Diary is the evidence which he gives of the prevalence of monarchical tendencies in the South The Raleigh (North Carolina) Standard, a paper which is in opposition to Jefferson Davis rule, gives the following testimony to the same point, which may be compared with Mr Russell's —

We have for months had fears that an organization existed in the Southern States or may be in process of formation to pull down the fabric of the Southern Confederacy—to establish in its stead a despotism or a monarchy We assert what we know to be true, that there are destructive office holders in North Carolina who ignore the Confederate Constitution and republican institutions — They are avowedly in favor of a military despotism or a King They are tired of freedom of speech and a free press and they would to-morrow if they could, vote to change the character of our institutions That these views are entertained by a large number of the Secession Destructive office holders both in the army and in civil life, we have the best of reasons for believing These views are held both by the Destructives of the old whig school and by fiery open mouthed, States' rights democrats "

This development ought not to strike anybody with surprise, after the philosophical explanation of the southern theory of society given by Hon L W Spratt of South Carolina a leading advocate of secession and the African slave trade —

The real contest —says Mr Spratt— is between two forms of society which have become established the one at the North the other at the South The one embodies in its political structure the principle that equality is the right of man, the other that it is the right of equals only The one expands upon the horizontal plane of pure democracy, the other has taken to itself the form of a social aristocracy In the one there is hireling labor in the other slave labor In the labor of one there is the elective franchise in the other there is not In the one the power of the government is only with the lower classes, in the other the upper

RAILROAD FROM SAN FRANCISCO TO PORTLAND —Mr S G Elliott civil engineer was in our place yesterday on his way through from Marysville California to Portland The purpose of his journey is to enlist the interest of various towns on the route in the project of a railroad from Marysville to Portland and to assist him by their subscriptions and influence to make a survey and maps of the proposed route The cost of the survey and maps will not exceed $15 000 Of this sum the citizens of Marysville have contributed $3,000 and lists have been opened in Red Bluff Shasta Yreka and other principal towns through which the road is expected to pass Our citizens should read the circular addressed to them and take the matter under consideration Who knows but that united action would, in five years, send the iron horse screaming over the whole length of the proposed route Stranger things have happened And is not the matter worthy of a trifling risk —Oregon Sentinel

In the absence of the Mayor, his Message to the Council was received through the hands of a friend, and upon motion, was read by the Clerk.

After the reading of the Message, Mr. Monastes moved that it be ordered printed in the daily papers of the city. Motion carried.

On motion, the Council adjourned until next [illegible] evening, at 7 o'clock.

SWEET POTATOES.—We acknowledge the receipt of a generous present of Peruvian sweet potatoes from Messrs. Knapp, Burrell, & Co., which are decidedly the best we have ever tasted. Try them, everybody.

THE ZOUAVES.—This fine company of young men drill at the Gymnasium to-night for a [illegible]. They are making rapid progress in the [illegible] system of exercises.

Message of the City of Portland.

To the Common Council:

It is my duty under the Charter of the City to communicate to your body the condition of the city in relation to the finances, improvements and government of our city; also, to present for your consideration such measures as in my judgment may be for the common good and general welfare.

From a small and obscure village, almost rivaled by the town of Milwaukie, the progress of twelve years finds us a large, flourishing and rapidly improving commercial city, with pre-eminence to all competitors in population, wealth and commercial importance. As yet we are but in the vigor of youth, our population numbering but a few thousand—our wealth but a few million; the rapid increase of our population, the extent and substantial character of the improvements being made—the rapid increase of our commerce, superadded to this the high character, solid worth and business integrity of our fellow citizens who have given caste to the business and commercial character of our city, fully warrant [illegible] a position second only to San Francisco, the great commercial emporium of the Pacific.

I [illegible], hope, gentlemen, that, laying aside all petty jealousies, wisely compromising [illegible] interests, you will, in your legislation, seek only the common good and general welfare of our city, and your only strife will be, who best can work and best agree in the [illegible] of measures for the advancement of our city in its onward and upward course in prosperity, wealth and commercial importance.

As a city we are unencumbered with debt and free from all financial embarrassment, with a population of upwards of four thousand, possessing a taxable property exceeding three and one-half millions of dollars.

The receipts during the year up to the first of the present month, from all sources, according to the best information I have been able to gather, were as follows:

Revenue derived from licenses	$10,339 68
[illegible] rent Tax for the year 1861	716 37
[illegible] tax collected for the year 1862	9,297 56
" " " " " " " still in the hands of the Collector	1,290 74
Total	$21,653 55

There remains delinquent of the tax for the year 1862, about $850, $100 of which is supposed to be collectable. No regular books of account have ever been kept by the city from which an exhibit in detail of the receipts and disbursements can be obtained; but the objects for which money has been appropriated may be looked for and assorted out from the [illegible] list of warrants ordered drawn on the Treasurer by the Common Council. Owing to this state of affairs, I am unable to [illegible], for my own convenience and satisfaction, or for the purpose of communicating to your body, the amount of the receipts and disbursements in detail under the respective heads with that nicety and precision necessary to thoroughly inform ourselves relative to the various departments under your control. I trust, gentlemen, that at an early day a more thorough and precise system of keeping the accounts of the city will be inaugurated.

There has been expended up to the first of the present mouth, of the revenue collected as above set forth, the sum of $16,374 11, leaving a balance to the credit of the city of $5,279 74, which sum is in U. S. Legal Tender Notes.

The revenue of the past year was derived from a tax of four mills on the dollar, and licenses issued for drays, saloons and [illegible]—most of which, if not all, was in U. S. Legal Tender Notes. This currency is [illegible] fluctuating in value—thereby occasioning a great loss to the city, which must [illegible] revert back to the tax-payers. I would recommend that you require all payments to the city to be made in coin.

Our Fire Department needs no commendation. I recommend it to your fostering care. We have a large, experienced and well disciplined Fire Department, ever vigilant in the protection of property from the ravages of fire, by which so much desolation and penury has been caused in the cities of our sister State, California. The necessities and wants of the [illegible] Companies have been supplied to the best of the ability of the city, nor do I think the money has been injudiciously expended. In addition to the benefits derived from the Department in the protection and security of property, the buildings erected for the use of two of the Companies are a credit and an ornament to our city. The judicious expenditure of public money in substantial and elegant public buildings gives impetus to enterprise and stimulates emulation in useful as well as ornamental improvements, which redound to the credit and benefit of the community at large.

The Police Department of the city is entirely defective. The City Marshal and such Deputies as he may select must depend entirely upon their statutory fees for remuneration for their services. These are entirely inadequate. Our city needs an effective Police, paid by the city and accountable to your body for a strict discharge of their duties. I request your early attention and careful consideration to this subject. I have no particular system for the selection, payment and control of an efficient police department, equally effective with our fire department.

The body of our city is regularly laid out, and when the streets shall have been graded and drained, our public grounds tastefully arranged in accordance with the plans adopted by preceeding Common Councils, our city will present a regular and comely, if not a beautiful appearance. At this time many of our streets are quite impassable during half the year, and nearly all of them, as well as our public grounds, present a ragged and ungainly appearance. To the condition and improvement of the streets and public grounds of our city, I respectfully invite your early attention, and urgently recommend the immediate adoption of some practical, permanent system for their improvement. All these greatly needed improvements may not be accomplished in one year; but some wisely chosen and judicious plan can be adopted for the eventual accomplishment of all, and much can be done immediately.

"The united voice of our citizens calls for the suitable provision of a house for the dead." This was the language of one of my predecessors years since, to the Common Council, yet no such provision has been made. This demands your immediate attention. A suitable place on the West side of the Willamette river should be selected and purchased for this purpose. The Charter confers authority to purchase and hold land, either within or without the city for this purpose. Let such a place be at once secured and properly prepared and improved.

The ordinary revenue of the city may not be sufficient to carry forward with sufficient dispatch the improvement of the streets and public grounds. The Legislature, in your charter, has vested in you the power to raise a large revenue, when for any specific purpose or improvement you may deem it advisable so to do. In addition to the tax of one-half of one per cent., you are empowered to levy and collect, by Article 4, Sec. 7, of the city charter, an additional tax of one-half of one per cent. when such additional revenue shall be required for some specific object. This additional tax of one-half of one per cent. will yield a revenue of $12,000. The charter authorizes the levying and collection of license upon all dealers in goods, wares, merchandise, liquors, provisions, &c., &c. This would give a revenue from licenses over and above the amount now collected from same source of, say $10,000. By the classification of business houses into first, second and third classes according to the amount of business transacted, and the graduation of the charge for license according to the class, would equalize the burden and be oppressive to none; consequently, for the payment of the ordinary expenses of our city government, and for proposed improvements, you have as follows:

Usual tax of 6 mills on real and personal property say	$12,000
License to saloons, drays, &c., say	10,000
Proposed specific tax of 6 mills, say	12,000
Proposed license to merchants and dealers, say	10,000
Total	$44,000

These are my suggestions, and I firmly believe that our citizens would approve of your carrying these into effect, provided it be done in a permanent, judicious and economical manner.

I earnestly desire that all your deliberations may be in harmony, that your determinations may be wisely made, and all your actions result in the rapid improvement and good government of our city.

Steamboat Racing.

AFLOAT, April 16, 1863.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I see notices in the Portland papers of the racing between the Hunt and Baker written in a spirit rather encouraging of the matter than otherwise. If this racing is continued it will probably terminate in an explosion or collission, and when some of our neighbors and friends have lost their lives in consequence it will then be too late for the Press to denounce the affair. Permit me, therefore, to suggest, if the Press should not look after the public interests and safety in this matter.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short tim

Croakers.

'Do not depress and discourage us with your fears but cheer us with your hopes' — Thus writes an officer of the United States army It is hard when our noble sons are in the field, defending us, our homes and interests, from those who would make us their slaves, to dishearten them by expressions of fear or to echo the prophecies of the subjects of 'D ubting Castle "

"Why art thou cast down O my soul, and why art thou disquieted within me?" Very few of those who are 'cast down'' can tell why they are disquieted Independent of the hope every man should have in Him who always prospers what will ultimately benefit the race, we have every reason to cheer our noble and self-sacrificing army We never had more or better men in the field, never had better guns mounted and afloat, never had so many or such powerful ships, never had so much real power in hand as at this moment, and, per contra, the rebels were never so distressed and so near a complete collapse as now They brag in print, and cry aloud and spare not in public speeches, while the secret dispatches to their foreign friends speak of misery and suffering which cannot long escape death pangs

We are in plenty—they are in extreme want, and while they are desperate we need only to be true and in earnest to conquer

Croakers tell us that our Government is bankrupt. Facts tell us that the income tax and duties on imports will yield us $250,000 000 per annum, that the circulating medium of the country, without detriment to its interests, will give the Government a credit of $300,000,000, and that the people will take at or near par several hundred millions of interest bonds.

Croakers tell us our Government is imbecile and partisan. Facts tell us it is strong, and, on the whole, equal to the unprecedented and monstrous load suddenly laid upon it, that it has selected Generals and officers from every party and sect, endeavoring to get the right men in the right place.

It is true we have arch foes—traitors in front and croakers in rear—and of the two the former are more to be admired Of the latter there are a great variety There are hard shelled croakers and soft shelled croakers. The former do nothing but pay what the law compels—the latter growl skulk, and pay nothing Then there are the "Outs," who have been so long accustomed to eat from their master's crib, that they, less intelligent than the ox, think it is their own, and having practiced at the game cry plunder!" S cries the incendiary af er he has fired a dwelling! "Stop thief!" is the covered cry of the real thief

Then there are some of the contractors, who have aided with their shoddy, bad shoes and bad supplies to lessen the efficiency and increase the sufferings of the honest soldier—they cry "it looks dark," "the Quartermaster don't pay"—when to pay such would rob the people and reward heartless scamps

Then there are the Pilates, who sit on settees in 'Change hours as judges—"wash their hands before the multitude, saying we are innocent"—and while their country is being falsely accused and its life threatened, they wish the army would march on Washington, demand their pay, return home, and let Jeff Davis & Co. enter the Capitol

Lastly—The faint hearted—they should be pitied, not blamed, if they are women, but if men, they are beneath pity

Who that has a heart will not stand up for his country and defend its flag? "My country, my whole country," is the cry of every true man. Mistakes, blunders and reverses will come, rogues will plunder, true rebels will fight, hypocrites will skulk, but real men will come and defend their country in spite of all these things, and, like the Burgomaster of Old Leyden, say, "You may kill and devour this body, but my country I will never surrender."

We have wealth, men, guns, courage, right, upon our side, and we only want earnest purpose to end this war To bring all our strength, and especially that of earnestness, we may have forced upon us the misery of burned cities and defeated armies, but come what may, conquer, we can,—and, if God please, we will —Boston Transcript.

The Reaction in England.—In addition to the news of the emancipation meeting in Liverpool the Arabia brings accounts of a series of similar gatherings in London, at which the most cordial sympathy was expressed for our Government

At Lambeth 'Baths, (London) February 19th, there was an immense demonstration, at which resolutions were adopted deprecating "any attempt to recognize, as a nation, the revolted Southern States of America, whose avowed intentions are to ignore the rights of the colored races and to perpetuate slavery, and protesting against any act on the part of the Government of England compromising the friends of the slave in this country."

One of the speakers strongly denounced the Government for not interfering to stop the fitting out of the Alabama and other Confederate steamers which had sailed from British ports to prey upon American commerce on the high seas. There were fifty steamers in preparation in different building yards of England and Scotland, and it was perfectly well known by every workman engaged upon them that they were intended either as war ships to fight in the Confederate cause or to run the blockade with stores and material for the Confederate armies.

At another crowded meeting at Oldham similar action was taken, and the resolutions ordered to be sent to Minister Adams

At a meeting at Farnsworth, the following resolution was offered

Resolved, That, regarding slavery as a crime against humanity and an offense against God, and seeing that the American States now in rebellion against the Federal Government avowedly desire to found a new Constitution with the eternal perpetuation of slavery as its corner stone, this meeting hereby expresses its conviction that the revolting States are undeserving the sympathy of freemen, and that their success would be a curse to the negro race and a calamity to the world at large

On being put to the vote, the resolution was carried by an overwhelming majority, followed by tremendous cheers and waving of handkerchiefs. The meeting adjourned with cheers for the George Griswold and President Lincoln In Manchester, on the 18th, Rev Newman Hall addressed an immense meeting on slavery; this meeting also adjourned with cheers for the Griswold

A great meeting was held on the 19th in Carlisle, to express approval of the emancipation policy, and to condemn the past career and ultimate aims of the slave Confederacy The meeting was most enthusiastic, and the resolutions were carried with only three dissentients. The conduct of the Lord Mayor in feteing the author of the Fugitive Slave Law was strongly reprobated

"I say, Bill, I've just found out what Gen Wright established a post out at Klamath Lake for"

"Ah! what is it?"

"For the poor immigrants to hitch their horses to."

AYER'S
CHERRY

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

Brimfield, Mass 20th Dec., 1855

Dr. J C Ayer I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness Influenza and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints EBEN KNIGHT, M D

A B MORTLEY, Esq of Utica N Y., writes "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it or take any other remedy"

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

Springfield Miss., Feb 7, 1856

Brother Ayer I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people HIRAM CONKLIN, M.D.

AMOS LEE Esq Monterey Ia writes, 3d Jan., 1856—"I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks, took many medicines without relief finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs less than one half the bottle made me completely well Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies as the poor man's friend"

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

West Manchester, Pa., Feb. 4, 1856.

Sir Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L PARKS, Merchant

A A RAMSEY M D., Albion Monroe Co., Iowa, writes Sept 6, 1855 During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach, but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Astor House, New York City, March 5, 1856.

Doctor Ayer, Lowell I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing until Dr [illegible] of this city where we have come for advice recommended a trial of your medicine We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville.

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues. — Philadelphia Ledger
